Faculty

Bruce R. Blair PLS Founder/Owner of BRB Forensics in Hillsborough
Mr. Blair is a Land Surveyor licensed in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York. He has more than 45 years' experience in all phases of surveying, covering construction through title. He is an instructor and lecturer on legal issues in surveying and GPS. Mr. Blair was the president of the New Jersey Society of Professional Land Surveyors (fellow member), is the president of the New Jersey Chapter of the International Right of Way Association and is a fellow of the National Society of Professional Land Surveyors (ACSM). He served five years as a Governor's Appointed member of the New Jersey State Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors (one year as President) and 10 years with the National Council of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors.

Steven Nudelman Partner at Greenbaum Rowe Smith & Davis LLP in Woodbridge
Mr. Nudelman counsels owners, developers, contractors and suppliers in a wide variety of matters involving public as well as private construction projects throughout the State of New Jersey. He regularly handles matters in State and Federal Courts, in both New Jersey and New York, as well as construction and commercial arbitrations, mediations and disputes before the International Centre for Dispute Resolution. Mr. Nudelman also has represented insured owners and lenders prosecuting and defending title insurance claims on behalf of national underwriters. He has prosecuted and defended claims involving trespass, easements, adverse possession, limited liability company fraud, boundary disputes, equitable subrogation and title defects.

Edward C. Eastman, Jr. Partner at Lomurro Davison Eastman & Munoz PA in Freehold
Mr. Eastman is the firm's authority on real estate, complex title disputes and general litigation. His department processes applications for tideland grants and leases, waterfront development permits and CAFRA permits. He has served as a lecturer for the New Jersey Land Title Institute, has authored sections of the New Jersey Practice Series on real estate law and is coauthor of NJICLE book entitled, Residential Real Estate Law and Practice in New Jersey. He is the past chairperson of the Board of Consultants, the Real Property Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Edward Pagan Jr. Attorney at Pagan Affiliates LLC in Lambertville
Mr. Pagan's practice includes professional liability litigation for architects, engineers and land surveyors; boundary law; commercial law; insurance law; municipal land use law; and real estate. He is an associate member of the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping, the National Society of Professional Land Surveyors, and the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Land Surveyors, and he is a member of the New Jersey State and Hunterdon County bar associations. Mr. Pagan is the 1999 recipient of the Special Appreciation Award issued by the New Jersey Society of Professional Land Surveyors.

Lee M. Tesser Attorney at Tesser & Cohen, Attorneys at Law, in Hackensack
Mr. Tesser is well versed in real estate development issues, including contract negotiation, real estate transactions, financing, government approvals, representation of construction managers and contractors, and the construction process. Having litigated and arbitrated numerous construction cases, Mr. Tesser has a deep understanding of issues relating to construction work, delay claims, constructive acceleration, and defective and incomplete work. A former chair of the New Jersey Bar Association's Construction Law Section, Mr. Tesser has been recognized on numerous occasions as being one of the most outstanding lawyers in the State.

Robert Beckelman Partner at Greenbaum Rowe Smith & Davis in Woodbridge
Mr. Beckelman handles land use, zoning, commercial and civil litigation in Superior Court matters as well as appearances before various boards, governing bodies and agencies, with an emphasis on redevelopment projects, eminent domain, and affordable housing. He also engages in related compliance and transactional work and contract negotiations. His experience also includes civil and commercial litigation, environmental litigation and compliance, code enforcement issues, local government laws, procurements, and municipal court matters.
