AIA Provisions in Construction Contracts 2026

Seminar or Event

5.19.26

Event Sponsor: Lorman Education Services

Live Webinar

1:00pm –2:05pm

Steven Nudelman, chair of the firm's Construction Contracting & Risk Management practice, will lecture on "AIA Provisions in Construction Contracts" at a live webinar hosted by Lorman Education Services on Tuesday, May 19, 2026, from 1:00pm –2:05pm.

This presentation will provide a practical overview of key provisions in AIA construction contracts, helping owners, contractors, and subcontractors better understand how to manage risk and improve project outcomes. The program will cover essential topics related to time and money, along with a close look at A201-2017 General Conditions, including submittals, change orders, force majeure, material price escalation, correction of work, and termination. The seminar will also address commonly negotiated, risk-shifting areas of AIA contracts, such as insurance, indemnification, limitation of liability, and dispute resolution.

Steve is an experienced construction lawyer who represents clients in negotiating and drafting construction contracts and in prosecuting or defending construction-related claims. For over 30 years, he has represented members of the construction industry across a broad spectrum of matters. He has comprehensive experience navigating all aspects of construction project lifecycles, from advising on project delivery systems to negotiating and drafting complex construction contracts, including contract administration.

For more information and to register, visit the Lorman Education Services website.

Related Attorneys

Steven Nudelman

Partner

732.476.2428

Email