9:00am – 4:00pm

Greenbaum partners Jemi Goulian Lucey and Alan S. Pralgever will be on the faculty for a seminar on “Counseling Clients Through a Business Lens for Greater Success” on Tuesday, September 29, 2026, from 9:00am – 1:00pm. The program, hosted by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, will be held at the New Jersey Law Center and will also be available for online viewing. This program is intended to build financial and commercial expertise for both litigators and any lawyer who represents business clients.

Jemi will present on the topic “The Strategic Advocate: Seeing the Whole Playing Field,” which will explore how business imperatives shape every stage of a dispute, from early risk evaluation to public outcomes, and how to be positioned as an indispensable advisor. She is a trial attorney who focuses her practice on employment, higher education, and complex litigation matters in state and federal court.

Alan will discuss “The Disciplined Supervisor: How to Plan for and Obtain Realistic Results,” which focuses on guiding clients to consistency, predictability, and realistic outcomes. He concentrates his practice on business and commercial litigation in state and federal courts, as well as arbitrations in both New Jersey and New York as a civil mediator certified by the New Jersey Superior Court and a AAA-trained mediator and arbitrator.
