Employee Handbooks in 2022: What the Pandemic Has Taught Us

Seminar or Event

3.02.22

Event Sponsor: Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP

Live Webinar

12:00pm - 1:00pm (ET)

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP will present the webinar, "Employee Handbooks in 2022: What the Pandemic Has Taught Us," on Thursday, March 3, 2022 from 12:00pm - 1:00pm.

Speakers for this program are:

Thomas C. Senter
Co-Chair, Employment Law Department
tsenter@greenbaumlaw.com
732.476.2650

The employment law landscape has been changing at warp speed since COVID-19 entered the picture as a national health crisis in 2020. Employers have been confronted with many new legal compliance requirements related to their workforce, while also continuing to manage their businesses through these most difficult of times. This program will focus on employee handbooks as a crucial tool to be used by forward-thinking employers to help navigate the current crisis, avoid legal troubles, and become an "employer of choice" in an evolving work environment.

This webinar will address the following issues:

If you were unable to attend, you can view the Program Recording.

Related Attorneys

Thomas C. Senter

Partner

732.476.2650

Email

Joel Clymer

Partner

732.476.2514

Email