

Greenbaum Attorney Justine DelVecchio to Serve as Vice Chair of CAI-NJ 2026 Editorial Committee

Announcement

10.29.25

Justine A. DelVecchio, an associate in the firm's Community Association practice, has been appointed to serve as Vice Chair of the Community Association Institute New Jersey Chapter's (CAI-NJ) 2026 Editorial Committee.

The Editorial Committee oversees the production of CAI-NJ's monthly magazine, Community Trends®, which provides information, analysis and informed opinion content to the organization's membership. The committee is responsible for soliciting, reviewing and editing all articles for publication, working closely with CAI-NJ staff in the execution of its responsibilities. CAI-NJ supports common interest community homeowner leaders, business partners, management companies and community managers through education, research, marketing, networking and advocacy.

In the specialized area of community association law, Justine assists in the drafting of contracts for association clients and their vendors, as well as in the production of amendments to association governing documents including bylaws, master deeds and resolutions.
