Greenbaum family law attorneys The Hon. Michael R. Casale (Ret.), Tamires M. Oliveira, and Barry S. Sobel will be panelists for the program "Hot Tips in Family Law 2026 – The Essential Ethics Update," to be presented online by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) on Wednesday, November 11, 2026, from 9:00am – 1:00pm.

This popular yearly program featuring seasoned family lawyers and judges will provide insight, knowledge and perspective in finding solutions to complex ethical dilemmas in the practice of family law.

Judge Casale represents clients in mediations, arbitrations, and settlement conferences, and serves as a court-appointed discovery master in family and civil cases. He is qualified by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a R.1:40 mediator and is admitted to the rosters of Civil Mediators and Mediators for Economic Aspects of Family Law Cases for Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Morris, Ocean, Passaic, Somerset, Sussex and Union counties.

Tammi has expertise related to economically complex divorce and separation proceedings, asset distribution, domestic partnerships, cohabitation agreements, prenuptial agreements, post-judgment enforcement and modification applications, alimony and child support, and domestic violence cases. Her practice includes matters with cross-border components, such as international divorce considerations, parties living in different countries, and disputes involving jurisdiction.

Barry is a litigator who represents clients in complex family law matters. His work encompasses a broad range of issues, including those related to divorce, alimony, custody, child support, and the equitable distribution of assets. Barry provides counsel on both the financial and non-financial elements of family law concerns, including those related to cohabitation, retirement, domestic violence, and child relocation.
