Jemi Goulian Lucey and Irene Hsieh will speak at a live webinar on "How Title VII and Title IX Co-Exist Under the New Title IX Regulations" on Tuesday, April 20, 2021 from 12:00pm - 1:40pm. The program will be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE). Ms. Lucey, Ms. Hinton and Ms. Hsieh will be joined for this presentation by Jennifer J. McGruther, Associate General Counsel in the Office of the Senior Vice President and General Counsel at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey.

On August 14, 2020, the U.S. Department of Education's long-awaited final regulations regarding sexual harassment under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 went into effect. These new regulations have a significant impact on the manner in which educational institutions investigate and address claims of sex discrimination and harassment. These investigations and claims must be handled keeping Title VII in mind. This presentation features both the perspective of university representatives and Title IX plaintiffs' counsel.

Topics to be addressed include:

Ms. Lucey is Co-Chair of the firm's Higher Education Practice Group. A trial attorney who concentrates her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence law, she represents private and public entities and institutions of higher learning in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence matters, Title IX claims, and business disputes.

Ms. Hsieh, also a member of the Higher Education Practice Group, concentrates her practice in commercial litigation. She has growing experience in the areas of trusts and estates, employment, and construction litigation, including work on behalf of clients in the building industry and academic sector.
