Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, in collaboration with the New Jersey Hospital Association, the New Jersey Healthcare Financial Management Association, the Medical Society of New Jersey, and the New Jersey Dental Association, will present a three-part series of Lunch & Learn webinars titled "COVID-19 Conversations: Legal Issues for New Jersey's Healthcare Community."

The third program in the series, "Insurance Coverage Issues and Defending Your Rights in the Age of COVID-19," will be presented on Wednesday, July 1, 2020 from 12:00pm - 1:00pm.

The program faculty will be:

Moderator:
James A. Robertson, Partner & Chair, Healthcare Department

Speakers:
Robert B. Hille, Partner, Healthcare Department
Neil M. Sullivan, Counsel, Healthcare Department

This program will provide a review of claims and coverage both as an insured claiming against policies written before COVID-19, and as the holder of rights under health insurance policies issued to patients with pandemic-related healthcare expenses. Both within the healthcare industry and beyond, business interruptions, force majeure, and fraud-related concerns have all taken on new and different dimensions in the wake of an unprecedented public health crisis and resulting widespread economic disruptions. This webinar will provide an informative deeper dive into insurance claims and coverage, both as an insured party claiming against policies written before the COVID-19 pandemic, and as the holder of rights under health insurance policies issued to patients with pandemic-related healthcare expenses.
