Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is pleased to announce that our partner Jemi Goulian Lucey was installed as Second Vice President of the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey (AFBNJ) at the 48th Annual William J. Brennan, Jr. Award Reception, which was held on Tuesday, June 10, 2025, at the Park Chateau in East Brunswick.

In addition to the installation of the AFBNJ's 2025-2026 slate of officers and trustees, the event recognized the Judges of the ReEntry Court and Pretrial Opportunity Program. The Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo, U.S.D.J., accepted the 2025 William J. Brennan, Jr. Award on behalf of her fellow honorees.

Jemi, who is currently the AFBNJ's Treasurer, also serves on the organization's Young Lawyers and Third Circuit Committees. A member of the firm's Litigation and Healthcare teams, Jemi also chairs the Employment and Higher Education practices. She is a trial attorney who focuses her practice on employment, higher education, and complex complex matters in state and federal court, representing private and private entities, including institutions of higher learning, in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence cases, Title IX claims, and general business disputes.

Additional information about the 2025 Brennan Award Reception is available on the AFBNJ website.
