Joseph A. Natale to be Installed as Treasurer of NJSBA Young Lawyers Division

Announcement

4.24.26

Joseph A. Natale, an associate in the firm's Litigation practice, will be sworn in as Treasurer of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division (YLD) at the NJSBA's 2026 Annual Meeting & Convention, which will be held at the Borgata Hotel, Casino & Spa in Atlantic City on May 13-15, 2026.

Joe currently serves as Secretary on the YLD's Executive Committee, co-chairs its Membership Committee, and is Assistant Editor of the YLD's Dictum newsletter. He is a fellow of the NJSBA's 2024-2025 Leadership Academy, one of twenty-one attorneys statewide to be chosen to participate in this prestigious and highly selective program. He is also a Trustee of the Morris County Bar Association, where he co-chairs the Construction & Surety Committee, and a member of the Essex County Bar Association.

Joe maintains a diverse litigation practice, representing clients in a wide array of complex commercial disputes, including breach of contract, fraud, tortious interference, and unfair competition claims. Additionally, he provides strategic advocacy in the sensitive area of "business divorces," handling shareholder and partnership disputes that involve allegations of minority shareholder oppression, misappropriation, conversion, and breach of fiduciary duty. Joe also defends professional liability actions, including high stakes claims of legal malpractice.

Joe is listed in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch (a trademark of Woodward/White, Inc.) in the Commercial Litigation and Professional Malpractice Law practice areas, and in Super Lawyers - New Jersey Rising Stars (a Thomson Reuters business) in the Business Litigation practice area. He was recognized by the New Jersey Law Journal on its 2025 New Leaders of the Bar list and by NJBIZ on its 2025 Leaders in Law list, and received the 2024 Outstanding Young Lawyer Award from the Morris County Bar Association.
