Online Event

4:30pm - 5:30pm

Jemi Goulian Lucey, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will co-moderate a panel discussion on "Professionalism, Advocacy, and the Woman Lawyer" on Tuesday, December 1, 2020 from 4:30pm - 5:30pm. The program will be hosted by the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association, of which Ms. Lucey is President, in celebration of Professionalism Month.

This program will be a dynamic conversation surrounding professionalism with a focus on providing women with a "tool kit" on how to deal with contentious and frustrating situations. Ms. Lucey will be joined as program moderator by Diana C. Manning, Vice-President, NJWLA; Executive Committee Member & Principal, Bressler, Amery & Ross, PC.

The following panelists will provide their advice and varying perspectives:

Ms. Lucey is a trial attorney who concentrates her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence law. She co-chairs the firm's Higher Education Practice Group and is a member of the Employment Law Practice Group.
