Live Webinar

9:00am - 11:00am

Jemi Goulian Lucey and Irene Hsieh will speak at a live webinar on "Title IX - The New Regulations" on Monday, November 16, 2020 from 9:00am - 11:00am. The program will be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE).

On May 6th, the U.S. Department of Education published its long-awaited final regulations regarding sexual harassment under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. The final regulations took effect on August 14, 2020. These new regulations will have a significant impact on the manner in which educational institutions investigate and address claims of sex discrimination and harassment.

This webinar will examine that impact from the perspective of both university representatives and Title IX plaintiffs' counsel. Topics to be discussed include the following:

Ms. Lucey is Co-Chair of the firm's Higher Education Practice Group. A trial attorney who concentrates her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence law, she represents private and public entities and institutions of higher learning in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence matters, Title IX claims, and business disputes.

Ms. Hsieh, also a member of the Higher Education Practice Group, concentrates her practice in commercial litigation. She has growing experience in the areas of trusts and estates, employment, and construction litigation, including work on behalf of clients in the building industry and academic sector.
