New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick

8:45am - 4:00pm

John D. North, Chair of the firm's Litigation Department, will be a panelist at the "Trial Advocacy Summer Institute," to be presented on Thursday, July 14 and Friday, July 15, 2022, from 8:45am - 4:00pm at the New Jersey Law Center. The program is sponsored by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) in cooperation with the American College of Trial Lawyers.

This 2-day intensive presentation will combine a series of lectures and demonstrations designed to sharpen skills in nine key aspects of trial practice - Rule 104 hearings, Jury Selection and trial themes, Opening Statements, Direct Examination and Cross-Examination of Lay Witnesses, Direct and Cross Examination of Expert Witnesses, Trial Ethics, Criminal Trial Issues, Utilizing Video Deposition and Demonstrative Exhibits at Trial, and Summation. Mr. North will lecture on Thursday, July 14 on the topic of Jury Selection/Trial Themes.

Mr. North focuses his practice in litigation, with an emphasis on trial practice. He has tried jury and non-jury cases in state and federal courts, including over 75 jury cases to verdict. He is certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Civil Trial Attorney. A significant portion of his practice is devoted to the defense of catastrophic injury and other high exposure cases in the areas of negligence, public entity liability and professional liability. He also concentrates in the representation of commercial and residential real estate developers in connection with design and construction defect litigation, as well as the defense of claims brought under New Jersey's Planned Real Estate Development Full Disclosure Act and Consumer Fraud Act. Additionally, he has represented major banks and financial institutions in connection with lender liability claims and matters involving negotiable instruments and financial fraud.
