Greenbaum partners Robert B. Hille and John D. North will serve as program moderators at the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education's Virtual Fall Conference 2026 on Monday, November 23, 2026. This year's full-day conference will feature 16 online presentations exploring the latest legal developments, practice trends and regulatory updates, including sessions focused on litigation, transactional law, labor and employment, family law, legal ethics, and numerous other topics.

John will moderate the session "Deepfakes, Bots and Machine-Made Proof: Authenticating Evidence in the AI Age" from 10:20am – 11:50am. This panel will explore New Jersey evidence rules, preservation practices and foundation questions that help attorneys challenge unreliable material and establish the provenance of reliable proof. Attendees will learn techniques to authenticate AI-generated audio, altered video, chatbot transcripts and other digital evidence.

John is a leader of the firm's Litigation practice. Certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Civil Trial Attorney, he has tried jury and non-jury cases in state and federal courts, including over 75 jury cases to verdict. He is a highly sought-after advocate for the defense of catastrophic injury and other high-exposure cases in the areas of toxic torts, negligence, and public entity liability.

Bob will moderate the session "Candor, Competence and the Chatbot: The Ethics of Law in the AI Age" from 3:50pm – 5:30pm. This panel will work through issues involving candor, competence, confidentiality, supervision and fees, with practical responses to fabricated citations, deceptive communications and data breaches. Attendees will gain insights into applying professional responsibility rules to AI-assisted briefs, client communications and cloud-held files.

Bob is a leader of the firm's Professional Negligence, Malpractice & Ethics practice. Certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a Civil Trial Attorney, he represents clients in litigation in state and federal courts, and before federal and state administrative boards and agencies. His areas of concentration include professional liability defense, disputes involving healthcare providers, insurance coverage matters, white-collar criminal defense, regulatory issues, and legal issues associated with the use of technology and artificial intelligence (AI) as they related to professional ethics.

The full conference agenda and registration details are available on the NJICLE website.
