Experience

Representative Matters

As an associate, Amory provides essential support in the firm's representation of clients in numerous matters, including the following:

- The firm represented the State of New Jersey, Office of the State Comptroller in appellate litigation challenging efforts to block publication of an investigative report concerning misuse of opioid settlement funds by a New Jersey municipality. The firm successfully secured a denial of the injunctive relief sought by the municipality, preserving the Comptroller's authority.
- Greenbaum is acting as New Jersey counsel to a multinational chemical manufacturer in more than two dozen federal and New Jersey state court actions alleging air and groundwater contamination caused by the discharge of poly-perfluoroalkyl (PFAS) substances. The cases include claims of alleged biomonitoring, personal injury, natural resource damage and contamination of a local water supply.
