- Sophisticated counsel across the full spectrum of matrimonial and family law
- Manages complex marital disputes in cases involving the valuation and equitable distribution of significant assets, including equity compensation in matters involving high profile individuals and high-value estates
- Strategic family advocacy including post-judgment enforcement and modification of agreements to reflect changing life circumstances.

Jackie is a preeminent practitioner in matrimonial and family law, recognized for her sophisticated approach to complex marital dissolutions. She has expertise in representing high-profile individuals and high-net-worth clients whose cases involve intricate financial structures, including equity compensation, private equity interests, and the equitable distribution of substantial marital assets.

She assists clients in navigating the full spectrum of family law, including matrimonial litigation, domestic partnership disputes, prenuptial agreements, alimony, child support, and sensitive parenting time/child custody/relocation issues. She provides strategic support related to the post-judgment enforcement and modification of agreements to reflect changing life circumstances.

Jackie frequently participates in the mediation and arbitration of family law issues and has served as a court-appointed guardian ad litem and law guardian to protect the interests of children in highly contested matters.
