As an important resource for the firm's attorneys and paralegals, Roberta manages Greenbaum's library, provides business and legal research services, and oversees the online tools necessary to support professional development and continuing legal education requirements. She has over 15 years of experience working with attorneys and earned her master's degree in library services from Rutgers University. Roberta volunteers for the New Jersey Law Librarians Association as a board member and as the Grants & Awards Committee chairperson. Similarly, she volunteers for the American Association of Law Libraries' Private Law Librarians & Information Professionals SIS Grants Committee. Roberta is a certified Professional Librarian through Thomas Edison State University, a Certified Paralegal through the National Association of Legal Assistants, a notary public, and a licensed New Jersey real estate salesperson in referral status.
